

Students of the Month

The Renaissance Committee is proud to Announce that the Students of the Month
Of March are:
James Ecklyn and Jimmy Zhou

James is a leader both in and out of the classroom. He comes to class every day ready to work and will assist his classmates if they need help. James is a consistently kind, hardworking, and genuine young man.

Jimmy is a hard-working and diligent student who goes above and beyond what is expected of him in US History 1 honors. His grades throughout the year have been excellent, and he consistently scores in the top of his class. Jimmy is an exceptional student, who is a pleasure to teach, and is deserving of student of the month.
